“ My GUY! Still hard to believe you're gone, Nupe. Thanks for all the support and advice over the years. You were SO generous to me, from letting me use your office back in the days, to just always being there to lend me an ear. You embodied what our fraternity is about. Miss you bro. See you at the Golden Shores, Nupe. Yo! - Alvin Grier

“ Delbert was a kind, loving man. He was always encouraging and respectful. Kept a wonderful smile and out look on life. My prayers are with his family. I will always cherish the memories. Rest my Friend!

“ My condolences to all who loved Delbert, & a thank you to his family for helping to mold the man. Yes, even his beloved children shaped him. He strove to give you, his family, his best. Delbert IS (not WAS b/c the truth doesn't change) a grace-extender, kind, warm, humble, a piece of work (as we all are), family-loving, parent-revering, music-appreciating, a hustler, good-natured, a risk-taker, a dreamer, a smack-talker (ironically today a muzzle would've been in order due to the football rivalry of our respective universities), & a funny human being. He loved & was loved. From C-Dub to Delby, I love you always. That's I-o-v-e, not I-u-v, b/c he laughingly made a distinction between the two:)

“ R.I.P. my good cousin Delbert Dulane Saulter.
Thanks for showing me to see. The positive things in people. To never judge someone until you get to know them. You will be missed.

“ As a friend of DB since he was 12, his roommate four times as well as we shared 4 different places of employment together and started our 1st business together when Del graduated from MI State. Also, as a person who talked with him literally everyday. I feel this song most speaks to DB heart, his & attitude about his life. Every word in this song speaks to Del life & attitude about life. Also, it is sang by his favorite artist. This song brings me comfort every time I listen to it. Enjoy & be comforted <https://youtu.be/lyAZOCpzpyo>.

“ I met Delbert through Todd & Judy as well. We were all 20-somethings and Delbert came to a party at my place and was so handsome and funny and helpful. I loved his relationship with Todd. He is godfather to my godsons and we shared being at their birth. May his memory be that of his caring nature.

“ Delbert and I became acquainted through his best friend, Todd, and my best friend, Judy. We both had the honor of being a part of their wedding day. I remember being nervous when it was our turn to enter the sanctuary to join the rest of the bridal party. Delbert quickly turned to me and said, "ok... booger check... You don't have any. Do I have any? No crust in your eyes... any in mine?" At that moment, I felt so much more relaxed and at ease. His sense of humor was unexpected, but always right on time. Delbert is certainly going to be missed. My deepest condolences go out to all of Delbert's family and friends. May God bless you all with peace and comfort during your time of mourning. Rest in power, Delbert. 🙏🕊️

Sincerely,
Alicia Washington Jackson & family
