“ Mrs. Bank, you welcomed me into the family with loved in 1992. When my mom passed away you were there through my loss; you listened as I cried and talked about my mom; you brought me so much comfort and joy at the same time.

When we worked together at People’s Community Services located in Southwest Detroit (Mexican Town), we worked hard but had fun doing it. We ate Mexican food at least 3 time a week and you taught me how to make the best brewed coffee ever (add salt to the grounds to take away the bitterness). Whenever something happened in Southwest Detroit or you wanted Tamales you would say to Mr. Banks “Let’s call our Little Black Mexican”.

I remember our last conversation, it was very personal; my heart was full, that you trusted and reached out to me to share your feelings and thoughts.

My time with you was a blessing. You left me with memories to cherish; your advice on life and love will guide me. I love you beyond words, Ronda.

“ This is my FRIEND. We shared “June Birthdays”, and as our friendship grew we began to share anything that we knew the other one liked or enjoyed. Both of us, being “Old School”, we remembered what being neighbors meant - “If you don’t have it, check next door”, ANYTHING - from ice, to toilet paper! She was here for me, as I was here for her. Building #6 will NEVER be the HOME, that Delores made it for me.
