“ Cuzzo, also known as Derrick was like family to me I've known him for over 20 years. He was a strong young man never was shy, never dodged anything took on everything head on every time I came to Detroit he always treated me with the upmost respect and always said Mario make sure you let me know where you're going before you go.... He always would tell me where to go and where not to go. Anytime I wanted to go to a restaurant he knew which one I should go to whether it be breakfast lunch or dinner, we always talked on the phone and I'm going to miss him because I no longer have a guide for when I come to Detroit. RIP Cuzzo..... love Mario.
