“ To my Detroit Cousins,

Words can not express the grief I am experiencing with the passing of Derrill. Even during life's difficulties, Derry kept smiling and giving love that he so richly received. His uniqueness placed him in a group that you always knew he would be there for you.

I reflect on the times he lived here in Nashville. He worked so hard to be a son, brother, father, nephew and cousin so we all would be proud of him. Like all of us, Derry wasn't perfect but he owned up to his mis-steps and moved forward.

There are times when our Heavenly Father looks at His children who are suffering. He sent an angel to carry Derrill to his forever home that is free of illnesses, pain and a weary life. We will miss his voice. All of our wondering how he is doing is replaced by thoughts of happy moments and knowing that he is now in the care of our Lord.

Rest in Heaven, my dear cousin, Derry.

“ Derrill will truly missed, he tough me how to love myself, he showed me how to laugh, love and truly enjoy life! He taught my children to respect not only themselves but other's! Although not biological he was an amazing father, so much so my baby came out of her room one with a serious look on her face and said " since your kids are grown and I don't see my dad, well i was thinking you could be my daddy"! He told her you can only have one daddy, but i will always be here for you!

She called him Daddy Derrill! Always in my heart!
