*Dear Dewayne,
I'm thankful that I got to meet you on this journey called life! You were always kind and a true gentleman. Thank you for sharing your kind words, your time and entrusting me with your real estate needs through all these years. I will always cherish and remember our conversation. May you rest in peace in God's presence.*

My sincere condolences to his son and extended family! May God comfort you during these difficult times.

*Most Sincere,
Marlene Sykes*

*“ Dewayne.... Oh my God, one unforgettable individual!
A person that would stay in your life forever with his kind, respectful way of life.
Always came to work with a smile and energy, energy that was contagious .
I can still hear him talk to me, unforgettable voice, telling the truth in a funny kind of way.
I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU, DEWAYNE!!!*

Dewayne, I am blessed to have known you through Geoffrey and the Panorama City, CA Post Office. Loved hearing you speak, and you were always respectful to me as the girlfriend and then wife of one of your long time co-workers and friends. Rest Well Dewayne, and my prayers and condolences are with the family and loved ones.

“❤️🙏. Dwayne, our secret keeper, our unwavering support system, and our guiding light, was a cousin who embodied the essence of a brother. He offered warmth without judgment, laughter effortlessly, and an endless love. Regardless of our age or the depth of our connection, his presence profoundly shaped us. Today, as we honor him, we are filled with gratitude for the cherished memories we shared and sorrow for the unfinished chapters of our lives. This brief tribute falls short of capturing the entirety of his spirit, but it conveys the unbreakable bond we will forever cherish. He was, and always will be, more than just a cousin; he was a soul companion. Rest in Love, Kevin, Pamela and Shaun
