

Dianne Marie Bland

December 17, 1946 - February 8, 2024

It is with a heavy heart but gratitude for God's mercy that we announce the passing of Dianne Marie Bland. There are multiple wonderful words and hyphenates to describe her but none more important than a woman-of-God. She excelled at everything she did from dance, ceramics, sewing, and knitting/crochet/embroidery. She was a compassionate and generous person and was able to relate to everyone she met. She is already missed immensely and we will learn to adjust to life without her physical presence. Anyone who has known her in any capacity and for any amount of time will have a wonderful moment or two to remember her by.

If you have a memory you would like to share for her services, we would love to receive it. We have a couple of ways you can share it with us. You can do a written memory or you can send a video recorded on your phone. Indicate if you wish for it to remain private for the family or if you are okay with it being public. Any public memories will be shared during the repast on a video loop and, of course, kept by us for our memories as well. It can be sent to MemoriesOfDianneBland@gmail.com.

Thank you for allowing us to share about Dianne putting the final event in her dash between her sunrise and sunset. And thank you all for helping the tapestry of her life to be woven with such rich, beautiful, jewel-toned fibers and patterns that outweighed the more neutral and dark ones that we know is a necessary part of life. Forever grateful and thankful for her.

Her Grand Finale was on Thursday, February 8, 2024 and she was beautiful.

“ Ladies and gentlemen,

We are gathering virtually to honor the life of Dianne Bland, a remarkable woman who touched the hearts of all who knew her.

Dianne was not just a dance teacher to me, she was a guiding light, a source of inspiration, and a pillar of strength.

I first crossed paths with Dianne in 1980, in Detroit, Michigan, when she opened her dance school. Little did I know that this encounter would shape my life in profound ways. Dianne was more than just an instructor, she was the embodiment of passion, dedication, and love for the art of dance. Under her guidance, she gave me the courage to express myself through movement and instilled in me the confidence to embrace my love for dance without reservation.

One of the most memorable moments with Dianne was when she encouraged me to pursue my dreams and urging me to audition for the prestigious Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Her unwavering belief in my potential empowered me to take that leap of faith, forever changing the trajectory of my life.

But it wasn't just the big moments that defined our bond. It was the countless hours spent in the dance studio, the laughter shared during rehearsals, and the quiet moments of reflection after a long day of practice. Dianne's guidance extended beyond the dance floor, she taught me invaluable life lessons about resilience, perseverance, and the importance of chasing your dreams.

I'll never forget the time we embarked on a road trip to perform a dance recital in Toledo. After Diane and I completed our trip and arrived back in Detroit, parked in front of the dance studio, I mustered up the courage to confess that it was my first time driving on the freeway. Dianne's reaction was a perfect blend of surprise, amusement, and terror. In that moment, I realized that she wasn't just my dance teacher, she was my mentor, my confidante, and my friend.

As we bid farewell to Dianne, let us carry forward her legacy of passion, kindness, and unwavering determination. Though she may no longer be with us in body, her spirit will live on in the countless lives she has touched and the memories she has left behind.

Rest in peace, my dear Dianne. You will be deeply missed, but your legacy will endure for generations to come.

With heartfelt gratitude and humility,

Tyrone Aiden

“ I have more than a memory, but a life changing experience of Mrs. Dianne Marie Bland.

The love she had for my great granddaughter, Harmony Marie, was undeniable. Dianne prayed for the love and companionship of a granddaughter, and I prayed for the love, need and companionship of a grandmother (for Harmony on her paternal side) .

God answered both our prayers. We both , together shared Harmony. Dianne and her daughters and grandson, not only showered her with love , affection and gifts, but for years, helped raise, nurture and teach life lessons, skills, and more. They were intentional about showing up and supporting her at school and out of school recitals , church and birthday 's ,as well as many other activities.

The Bland family is my family. They demonstrated that once they have you , they're not letting you go.

Thank You daughter's and grandson for sharing Mrs. Dianne Marie Bland with us.

“ What can you say about this great woman who instilled in youth a love for the art of dance. She was not only a great dance teacher, she was a mentor, a mother, a caring member of the Ziggy Johnson School of Dance Family. My Mom spoke with her late last year and it was just like they picked up where they left their last conversation....years ago.

Knowing her presence is no longer in this space hurts. But my spirit rejoices knowing she is dancing in heaven.

“ Even though I hadn't seen or spoken to Dianne in years, I will always have fond memories of working with her at BCBSM in the AA/EEO department.

Dianne was a beautiful, super intelligent and very artistic person with a infectious sense of humor that would have you in stitches.

She loved the Lord and it was evidenced by the way she lived her life.

I am proud to say that we had a beautiful familial bond with our families, including me selecting Keiva as one of my doctors.

She has left a wonderful legacy and will be truly missed.

“ Rev. Dianne Bland was a very good friend and like a Sister to me. I called her "Di". Our lives crossed when we were younger performing at the former Latin Quarter in Detroit. We were in the same circles and hadn't met, and didn't know we would connect later in life. She danced with great choreographers, such as Ziggy Johnson and Clifford Fears. We officially met at Kadesh when the ministry was located on Greenfield. We worked over the years at Kadesh planning African Weekends, Festivals, Carnivals, and serving on the Nurses Guild, Performing Arts Ministry, ministering in dance, and serving communion at members residences, whose health prevented them from attending worship service. There were times when we went to hospitals to pray for various members and non-members. Dianne loved her children and grandchildren, and especially loved her Kadesh church family. The Lord Blessed her with so many gifts! She was a prayer warrior, administrator, seamstress, performer, crocheter, teacher and very loving and giving person. My late husband and I were blessed to jump on board with Bishop Foster and Ministers from Kadesh and Disciples of Christ who were studying about Apostle Paul to travel to Cairo, Egypt and Athens, Green in November 2000. While it was a learning experience for ministry, we truly enjoyed our trip. I will miss my friend and sister, Di. Take your rest, thy good and faithful servant. Love you Kieva, Mark, Neeyn and the rest of the Bland family.

“ Momma Bland was always the kind smile ready to answer a question or direct you to the appropriate resource. She was a wealth of information. Her talents exceeded that of most and she was ready with how to for sewing, knitting or crocheting. When pushed to lighten her yarn supplies she was always ready to bring in a donation for a local church. She was missed when she retired but Keiva would keep us updated on her projects.
