“ Our deepest sympathy to the family in this time of bereavement in the loss of a dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother. May God bless you all and keep you strong. Remember the special times and the love she had for her family. The Greene, Levine and Salters Family of Atlanta, Georgia

“ In 1986, when my husband, the late Rev. Dr. Robert L. Holt was assigned as Pastor to Grace C.M.E. Church in Detroit, MI., we found a warm, caring congregation. One of the members in particular, Doris Isom, was so supportive and kind and encouraging to us. She and I loved to sit together and we often did while serving on the Stewardess Board. Doris didn't like to be interrupted during the worship service and neither did I so we were perfect seat mates. That is just one memory that stands out in my mind of our dear Doris. She will be missed. But Family, please remember, Jesus promised never to leave us alone. He will be there to hold your hand and guide you during these difficult days. Blessings and love. Sandra F. Holt
