“ I have always admired and looked up to Mama Blackwell. I still remember the 1st time I met her over 40 years ago. I thought she was one of the most beautiful black women I had ever seen. Looking so regal and majestic; I was a little intimidated by her at first, lol. It was not long before she put me at ease with her friendly smile and hello. Over the years she became my mentor without even knowing it as I watched the way she carried herself and how she guided her daughter Sheena through life and career situations. She was also the first Black woman I had known with her own business, which was very impressive back in the early 80s. As the years came and went it was a blessing to celebrate some of life's special moments and milestones with her and the Blackwell family, and in her later years it was a pleasure to help look after her while she was in long term nursing care. Mama Blackwell was truly a Proverbs 31 woman, and I am grateful that our life paths crossed. The Blackwell family continues to be in my prayers daily. May each and every one of you feel God's undying love and everlasting peace surround you during this time and in the days, weeks, months, and years to come. Love, Judy
