“ I will always remember Mrs. Dorothy for being the Washburn block mother, always smiling and with open arms ready to help or just give you a hug. Whether it was just conversation or the desserts that she shared when she baked, and she baked very often. We always looked forward to them. Mrs Dorothy will be truly missed by my brother, Stanley and myself. We love you and will miss you, Cammie.

My deepest and sincerest condolences. Your mom was such a beautiful kind soul, I know she's in God's loving hand. I'm praying for healing for you Linda and Mike. Know she's smiling at both of you and continuously sending her love.

*Love you
Robin*
