Dearest Driver-Close cousins, my heart aches at the knowledge of Drilla's departure and sweet and loving presence she established during her life with you. Know that your cousins, the Driver-Poole families of Cleveland, Ohio care deeply for your loss. Sorry we are unable to share our grief with you in person at this immediate time. We will continue to hold you up in prayer, appealing to the God of our Ancestors for your strength and well-being. However, I'm also sure that we all agree that cousin Drilla, aka Bay-Bay, has been welcomed into the joy of eternity, greeted by her loving Ancestors.

“ I’m Drilla youngest brother and we grew up in Cordova, AL in a small town. Drilla was quiet and got along with her siblings. Then she decided to move to Detroit and been there ever since her home going. She loved her family and wanted the best for her family. We are going to miss her. The Bible tells us to be absent in the body to be with Jesus. We all are pilgrims on this earth and this is not our home. We are just passing through and leaving a legacy. That legacy is Jesus Christ. If we all just reach one then this world would be a better place.

Love you my sister and I will see you on the other side.

Praying for you KK & Jasmine

Love

Your Uncle Billy Ray
