“ My cousin, bound to me by more than time or place. We grew up sharing memories, laughter, and so many good times, walking through life together as God allowed our paths to remain closely connected. Our children, born just a month apart, felt like another blessing and reminder of His perfect timing. Though you were taken far too soon, I trust that our bond continues beyond this life. I will keep these memories in my heart forever. One love, forever.
