“ Edward was an incredible neighbor. He was the first person to check in after our daughter was in the NICU. For Christmas he bought our boys a little night light projector that shows galaxies and planets on the ceiling. Our family will miss him.

“ These are the moments when we must pause and understand life is real. Ed was a friend and brother that God blessed me with the opportunity to share this life's experience with, and I am much better for it. I will remember him always for his quiet spirit and wisdom.
