“ I cannot express how saddened I am by the passing of my dear cousin Penny. While my heart weighs heavy, I am grateful to God for the time we shared since childhood. Our talks, our laughs, our family bond, and most importantly, our love, will last forever. I know that she has gone on to see the King, but she will forever remain in our hearts.

“ I have known Elaine all of my life. We met when we were 7 year's old and continued our friendship all of these years. We spent 2 glorious days together when I came up to MI for Christmas. I will miss her forever. May God bless you Darla, Earl and James as you deal with this enormous loss. Love, Dianne Hicks-Flourry
