“ To my family,
Aunt Eleanor was definitely a unique woman who loved her family with all her heart. As our Matriarch, she loved us hard and showed us what it meant to be family. She wanted us to love each other unconditionally and always take care of each other, no matter what. One thing is for sure, she certainly didn't mind correcting anyone in a way that only she could...you knew she meant it. I will always cherish my time with her and remember how much she loved me. In my younger days, I remember that she would end her phone conversations without saying she loved you. That was her way; it's what she did. It was not that she didn't, she just wouldn't express it, but as I got older, as did she, that all changed. The end of the conversation was now, "I love you Auntie" and she'd reply, "I love you too Baby"! That's what I'll miss along with her saying, "Gimme 20 dollars!" We all know what that was for. You fought all the way to the end. I'll cherish the moment you held my hand as God whispered your name and gently removed yours from mine. It was a blessing and my honor! You now hold His hand forevermore. Thank you Auntie for all you gave to your family. I love you!
Your niece,
Claudia
