“ Dion, your tribute to your mother was perfect! She would have loved it! "Those women" (I know you said it with much affection!) did you well, your mother most of all. They love you so much. And are so proud of how hard you worked on your education and career. the funeral was a beautiful tribute to Elizabeth, your cousin was moving and the soloist was a beautiful voice for her service. When Steve and I get back to Michigan, we will celebrate Elizabeth's life again, together. All our love, Jeanie and Steve

“ I have always admired the way Libbet loved—because she loved with grace. Her love wasn’t loud or pushy; it was present, intuitive, and generous. She had a quiet way of really seeing us—and offering exactly what was needed, often before we even asked.

Libbet called me her “California Baby.” When I was homesick at U of M, she made it her business to look after me. She spent countless weekends taking me shopping for groceries, winter clothes, and all the little things a college student might need. But really, she was just spending time with me—because, without me ever saying it, I think she knew I needed it.

My fondest memories of her will always be our weekend car rides. That’s when she seemed the most carefree—playing her favorite smooth jazz songs, turning up the volume, and making conductor motions with her hands when her favorite part came on.

I’ll miss her infectious laugh. I’ll miss hearing “Hey, my California Baby” whenever I was visiting Detroit. But most of all, I’ll forever carry with me the graceful love she gave.

Dion, Aunt Joan, and Rocky—this loss is immense. I’m praying for you and sending you so much love.
