“ I met Elizabeth (Liz) when I was assigned to Cody. We were always about Business and teaching our students. She could come up with some of the funniest sayings and we would laugh until we cried. To her family, I am praying that God will comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time in your lives. I too have a lost a Mother and you think of the beautiful memories that you shared. That always comforts me. She will be missed, but she now is resting in paradise.

“ Elizabeth and I have been friends for more than 35 years. I felt comfortable showing up at her house at anytime. We still remained friends after I moved out of Michigan over three years ago. We were on the phone a few weeks ago just going on and on like we usually do. We talked so long that that we had to get off the phone so the nurse could administer her work. I am really going to miss her. Eric, Junior and Cynthia, you were her world! I know you know that. She also adored those grandchildren.
