“ Dear Grandma,

It was an honor and a privilege to be your great-granddaughter. Most people my age never had the pleasure of meeting their great grandparents so I feel very fortunate to be one of the few who did. Not only did I meet you, but it seems like I was around you 24/7 as a child. You were the one person we had in common and I will miss your presence on this Earth immensely. You make me proud to have the last name Vance. Thank for the family dynasty you have built. Without it, we wouldn't be where we are today. Thank you for the countless memories. Thank you for being the epitome of a strong, wise, fierce, and gorgeous woman. I love, miss you, and hope you rest well.

“ Ella,

You always showed me unconditional love and told me the truth period! You were beyond dependable. I was in awe of you because there was nothing that you did not know or could not do! Words nor time could ever fill the space that you held in my life. Whenever I needed you you were always there. You were so influential and such an encouragement in my life. You really set the bar because you always displayed joy, optimism, strength and courage even in the midst of chaos and confusion. Whenever I was down you lifted me up with your jokes, stories, and that unique laugh you had which always made me feel better. You believed in me, empowered and gave people hope because that's who you were. Definitely chosen by God to be here on earth to make a difference...mission accomplished! Now, he has called you home to heaven.

I'll miss you (moma) and will forever cherish our special relationship.

Rest in Peace!

Love your Fre-Fre

“ Ella Mae Vance, was the smartest Woman I've ever known, I will miss her dearly, she had a great sense of humor and the biggest, kindness heart, she never met a stranger, She taught all her children the power of sharing and caring for others. My fondest memories was staying up all night talking, when I would visit from out of State.

*To the Family of Ella May Vance:
I had the pleasure of meeting her a few years ago, and going to the Michigan Made Fair with her daughter Precious and grandson James. I remember it was a wonderful day and Ella enjoyed it. May Ella find peace and eternal rest, and may the family cherish the many blessings she left. .*
