“ Words can not express what you meant to me. You were my very first mentor as a new, young teacher in Detroit Public Schools. The guidance that you provided me has made me the educator that I am today! Your love for children, all children had blessed all that have encountered you. I Love you and will NEVER forget you. Praying for your family. Rest well my Soror, my mentor, my friend 💕💚

“ Coming up i thought my auntie was as tough as nails. She was sooo stern and what a child would perceive to be mean 😊 however, as the years went on and our relationship grew strong, I recognized that her bark was much worse than her bite and that she was the sweetest person you'd ever want to meet. Me and my aunt shared our thanksgiving holiday every year meaning, she allowed me to bake for my customers and she assisted in helping me to prepare my meal with that Ernestine famous Mac & Cheese, Dressing and Potato Pies. In exchange she would ask me to bake my famous Caramel Or Pineapple coconut cake for her husband. I am going to miss everything about my aunt from the out of the blue phone calls just for her to ramble on and for me to listen, laugh and say okay auntie I gotta go several times (20minutes) before the call would end for real 😭 but I loved it and wish I could get that back. I love you Auntie!! Kiss Grandma and the others for me.
