“ Aunty Daphne and family, death and parting is hard enough, not being able to share time is painful. So trusting on one's faith will help sustain you all. Saw Ewart a few times in his latter years but I know he was special in your family. May your sweet memories comfort you. Blessings Mike , Regina and family.

“ From Shana, Peter & Co. To our dearest Uncle Ewart. Even though we are not ready, it's time for us to say goodbye. We will miss you dearly. The kids will miss visiting you on our trips to Michigan and enjoying ice cream and games with you. Ne-ne and Kwaku will miss you calling to say hello and your reminders that our kids are doing their job if they are causing us wa-ha-la! We will all miss the joy of your rich and hearty laugh. Our time spent together will forever be treasured. Thank you for all of the special moments. May you Rest In Peace and in the words of your little soccer player Kwame...you're an angel in heaven watching over us and now you can eat all the ice cream you want :)! We will love you always.

“ He was not as tall as my tallest brother but he was tall enough for me to tilt my head to look upwards towards him. As a new mother at the time he was my adult companion during the day when his brother Wilfred went to work. Neither of us were people of many words but there was a quiet respect and mutual friendship.

He was always ready to lend a hand in looking after his niece if I had to run to the corner shop. He was kind and gentle until he is watching tennis and football. Ewart is now reunited with his parents.

May he rest in perfect peace.

“ It is difficult losing a beloved family member. Ewart spent a few years with me at the Methodist Boys' High School in Freetown, Sierra Leone before transferring to the Prince of Wales School. For the brief period that I knew him in school, I can remember that he had a quiet demeanor. May God give comfort to the family and may Ewart rest in perfect peace.

“ I have known Ewart since my childhood days but the memories I cherish most are the fun times we had during my visits with the family in Michigan. We would reminisce about good times we had in Freetown, Sierra Leone, our country of origin. Ewart loved to dance and he taught me some complicated steps. "Cutaway" was one of his favorite steps and he took great pride in teaching me how to move sideways, to the beat! We had so much fun! I'm sure he is dancing with the Angels in Heaven. The Poem below is dedicated to Ewart:

MEET YOU AT THE GATE

A beautiful garden now stands alone. Missing the one who nurtured it.

But now he is gone. His flowers still bloom, and the sun, it still shines.

But the rain is like tear drops, for the ones left behind.

Just like the flowers, Ewart was part of God's plan.

When it was his time, God reached down His hand and found Ewart.

It was his time to rest. So, when we start missing Ewart, let us remember.

If we just wait, when God has a spot in His garden, Ewart will meet us at the gate...
