Fannie was the daughter of Cordell and Gertha (Jackson) Moore. Her birthplace was Roba Macon, Alabama/Tuskegee, Alabama.

With deep love and cherished memories, the family of Fannie Moore Halliburton announces her peaceful transition in Detroit, Michigan on Mother's Day, May 10, 2026. She was born on July 28, 1942, in Tuskegee, Alabama and lived a life marked by devotion to family, courage, strength, kindness, and grace.

Fannie was the beloved wife of James Halliburton (deceased) and a loving mother to James Halliburton Jr., Derek Halliburton (deceased), Mark Halliburton (deceased), Eutropia Halliburton Rhodes, and Crystal Halliburton (deceased), and Vincent (Michelle) Halliburton. Her brothers and sister, Cordell Moore Jr. (deceased), Larry Moore, Diane Moore, Larry Moore, Donald Moore (deceased), David (Joyce) Moore and grandchildren and great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She will be remembered for her warm and generous spirit, loving heart, and unwavering dedication to her family and loved ones. Her kindness touched many lives, and her memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Though she has entered eternal rest, her legacy of love, kindness, generosity, faith, and compassion will continue for generations to come.

Her Gentle Light

A gentle soul, a heart so kind,
Beautiful memories she leaves behind.
Her love was constant, strong, and true,
A guiding light in all she'd do.

Through every smile and every prayer,
Her warmth and grace were always there.
Though God has called her home to rest,
In our hearts she remains forever blessed.

Family Acknowledgement

The family of Fannie Moore Halliburton gratefully acknowledges every act of kindness, every prayer, phone call, visit, and expression of love shown during this difficult time. Your support and compassion have brought comfort and strength to our family, and we sincerely thank you.

“Perhaps they are not stars in the sky, but rather openings where our loved ones shine down to let us know they are happy.”

A Mother's Love Lives On

We do not say goodbye to you,
for love cannot depart,
you live in every treasured memory
engraved within our hearts.

Your hands once held us gently,
your voice once calmed our fears,
your wisdom shaped our stepping stones
through all our growing years.

From Tuskegee's humble beginnings,
you rose with grace and pride,
a faithful wife, a guiding light,
with family at your side.

Though time has called you homeward,
your spirit still remains,
in every story told of you,
in joy and in our pain.

And though we cannot see you now,
we feel you every day—
in love, in faith, in quiet strength

that never fades away.

From Eutopia to her

mom:

A quiet grace, a patient heart,
A faith that shines in every part,
You showed me how to seek His light,
And walk by faith, and not by sight.
You prayed for me through every storm,
With gentle hands, so soft and warm.
In you, I see the Savior's love,
A precious gift from God above.
From you I learned to trust and pray,
To lean on Him along the way.
The greatest blessing I have known,
Is having you to call my own.

Your life reflects His perfect grace,
His peace and love in every space.
I thank the Lord for choosing you,
My mother, guide, and blessing too.

“Her love is our legacy, her memory our blessing.”

“ The First Home

*Your first home was her gentle, beating heart,
The quiet space where all your life began.
Now she has stepped beyond the mortal
chart,
But stays with you in every way she can.*

*Her hands are woven softly in your own,
Her wisdom echoes in the words you say.
Though she has traveled to the great unknown (heaven),
Her love walks with you through the darkest day.*

*So do not fear the tears you softly shed,
They are the memories that overflow.
By her eternal spirit, you are led,
She is the inner grace by which you grow.*

*For every time you show the world her care,
Or find the strength to rise above the grief,
You'll feel her in a breath of cooling air,
A timeless love that brings your heart relief.*
