“ Mr Fenton was the kindness man you will ever meet. He shared the best stories and was so intelligent. I just heard of his passing and was so sad to hear. I will never forget his chicken salad sandwich that my coworker and I ordered almost everyday. I'm sending prayers to the family.

It is with sincere sadness hearing this news! My daughter and I used to enjoy going to his restaurant the food was always excellent! The conversation and the character even better! One of the last of the true old school Minds. We have had multiple conversations about the ways the world has changed. He was a great man may his journey to the after-life bring him peace restored health and happiness God bless you! May your family find peace in remembrance of what a great person you truly were!
