“ Fina, we had such wonderful times while living in California. I have fond memories of us going to a friend's open house and then dining at the revolving restaurant near LAX. It was such a beautiful day. A day without obvious smog, such that we could see for miles! Also, another outing when we went to dine in Orange County at Orange Hill Restaurant high on the hill. We saw a spectacular sunset and enjoyed the beauty of the lights all over the county as we ate delicious food. I also remember spending what is referred to as the coldest summer in California, when we went to San Francisco for a long weekend in June. We had to purchase extra layers of outdoor clothing to keep warm against that hefty breeze off the Bay, but our excursions were still magical. Just a few of the best moments were seeing the wondrous redwood trees and other lush plants at the National Forest, spending time at Fisherman's Wharf, eating dumplings in Chinatown, and viewing the Oakland Bay Bridge during a boat tour. We were truly living the "good life" during our time in California. I will treasure those good times always!!! Thank you for being such a great friend. Danon
