Florence and I have been friends since we were young girls, we went to school together, lived in the same neighborhood, did what teenagers did went skating, to movies, back then to Woolworth's for burgers and sodas. Walked to the park, giggled and had fun. I'm going to miss my friend. Love Always Loretta.

“Florence was my next door neighbor and that is how my husband and I came to know her. She and I used to talk about once a month or more. We looked out for each other when one was away. That is why my husband saw something amiss when Florence's gate stayed open for several days, which was highly unusual. We also could not get her by phone so got in touch with her daughter who told us of Florence's trip unexpectedly to the hospital. And that began her journey to her final destination.

We will miss you my friend.
