

Florine Epps

August 2, 1938 - March 14, 2025

HEAVEN SENT: August 2, 1938 HEAVEN BOUND: March 14, 2025

Florine was born to the union of Walter Ivory and Annie Mae Danner in Mississippi. She was the third child of ten children. Her parents and six of her siblings preceded her in death.

Florine was a faithful, praying, praising Christian whose life was filled with the joy of living. Florine loved cooking and inviting family and friends into her home. She loved taking a road trip to visit family and going on vacation. She looked forward to the Danner Family Reunions. She did not know the faces of all her younger nieces, nephews, and their offspring, but she wanted to know their names and activities. During my visits, she asked about each one by name, she wanted to know what and how they were doing. All the family news, all the time, made her smile. Most importantly, she became our family's prayer warrior. She might be sitting or lying still, but faithfully she prayed daily to keep her family covered.

Florine and her late husband, Claude Epps, loved their son, Jahan Epps. She called Jahan, "My number one favorite son.", which always made him smile. Before Jahan, Florine and Uncle Claude fostered many babies and toddlers. She retired from her civil servant position to enjoy motherhood.

Florine was also a Licensed Cosmetologist..

Several health issues sidelined her ability to engage in many of the activities that she loved.

Florine dedicated these slow times to praising the Lord. Florine stayed faithful to her belief in God and her resilience when faced with challenges was inspirational.

On Friday, March 14, 2025, Florine made her transition to join Christ. Florine leaves to cherish her memory her son, Jahan Epps her three sisters, Earlie Currie of Enfield, Connecticut; Dorothy Proctor of Novi, MI; Margie Williams of Detroit, MI, 3 grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

“ See black and white photo of FLORINE DANNER EPPS' great grandmother, LENORE MOORE and her son, MARK[Uncle Mark]. This maternal great grand represent those on whose shoulder we stand. Believed you are the must uphold your family's name in your community. Tell the truth, show respect, dont be wasteful, make GOD First, work, learn and love your family. Florine Epps quit her jpb in Detroit, returned to Brighton, AL to tend nurse her bedridden Grandmother, Rosa Triplett, until she passed. Florine had am ecuberant spirit, but she'd show up whenever she could to help you. She was clean, hated lies and stealing. She took me to see all the jazz greats and was always happy to meet a new person

“ Rest in peace, Aunt Florine. You were always so kind and sweet to me and my little brother. I even remember when you gave me two dollars to rip up paper one time. Even though you're gone, you will live forever in my heart.

“ This is my maternal Aunt. Our dear Aunt Florine loved life. She loved to laugh, learn, dance, cook, entertain, hear jokes of all kinds, eat good food, fuss at her nieces and nephews and children, show up at your special events, drive cars, go on all types of trips. dress nice, do hair, and she loved her relationship with GOD. She spent the last years physically diminished because of several health reasons. Everyone in Detroit knows all aspects of her personality. When she got older, she was calmer and she'd say, "Brenda, I don't get mad anymore." I believe that her faith had become so immense that she knew without fail that GOD is in control. Aunt Florine gave a lot of love and when she left, she took a lot of love with her. I hope that everyone that knew her add a tribute. She knew her blessings, she said to her sister, ROSA, "We have had good lives, blessed lives for two little girls from a tiny place in Alabama. We had healthy children, good husbands[even if we use to complain], they took good care of us, we had beautiful homes, drove very nice cars, was never hungry, and went very nice places." This not goodbye to my AUNTIE FLORINE. This is UNTIL.... BRENDA FAYE
