“ Gail and Family,

Robert and I were very sad to hear that Frank had passed. Frank was a genuinely wonderful person, consistent over the many years of our friendship. Frank was my Mentor, my dear Friend and my Brother.

I met Frank at ACDelco in 1973 and from that first day he always had advice for me about the job and life, with vivid examples to support his commentary. I can still hear him say “I cannot tell you what you should do, only how I handled a similar situation.” Whether I followed his advice or not, he was always supportive of my decision. His smile, hearty laugh, good cheer were always on display. I cherish every memory of that I have of him.

Please know that we are here for anything that you need.

Gail and Family,

Frank will be missed for so many memorable times that he made indelible marks on our hearts and minds. His genuine interactions and wise advice, always with that great smile, were welcomed.

Frank—rest in peace and find a golf course you like up there!!

Gail—May your best memories of your times together fill your heart with joy and peace!

Frank was already in a leadership position when I joined General Motors in 1971. Even as a very young man, I always found that I could go to Frank with any question and/or concern and he was always available to lend an ear and offer an unique perspective.

His words were always deliberate, thoughtful and insightful. I am sure, I was just one of many people he helped along the way. He will truly be missed.

Our deepest condolences go out Gail and the entire family.

I met Frank (later to be known as Dad) in the early 1980's as a new radiology tech at DRH. He was married to my then boss who is now known as my MOM. His caring and compassionate demeanor will always be remembered as his words of wisdom (some you liked and some you didn't). One thing he told me that I give great tribute to because it helped me to develop into the woman I am today was, " You cannot soar with the eagles, acting like a duck, and if you want to soar with the eagles, then you have to act like an eagle".. These words resonate in my head every day and I am so proud that he adopted me as his own. Love ya Dad ❤️ Forever in my heart!!
