“ So sad to hear of the homecoming of Freddie. I remember many times he and Ernestine would come to Bowling Green. My prayers are with you all. May God give you strength in the days to come.

“ I was blessed to discover cousin Fred at my husband's family reunion in Alabama in 2008. I found out that he was a long lost relative of my uncles, the Fullertons. They had been separated when they left Arkansas back in the 40's. My uncles and cousin Fred were so happy to be reunited after all those years. They were able to visit and enjoy one another in their old ages. I loved getting to know cousin Fred. He was so joyful and energetic. I will always cherish the pictures we took together and the laughs we shared. May God bless the family.
