“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I have known George since I was a youth. George was my first encounter with a man that prayed, praised, and worshipped God outside the four walls of a church building. Watching him do that made me better.

“ You will always be "Uncle" to me. I will remember your tall, strong and quiet spirit, once a Marine, always a Marine. Semper Fi! I thank you so much for accepting me as I am, and loving me, anyway. Your Nephew Sebastian Gross.

“ You were there for my mother, you were there for me, and you were there for my children. We are the better for your imprint on us. Through all your planks, and your versions of the truth, and your tears for us, you inspired us to be proud of who we are as a people, and in particular, who we are as Lawson's. I shall miss you deeply Uncle Georgie.
