

Glenn Wayne Cabbell III

August 2, 2008 - March 29, 2019

GLENN WAYNE CABBELL III was born August 2, 2008 into the loving arms of parents, Glenn Jr and Tayadra Cabbell in Southfield, MI. He immediately assumed the position of Number 1 Son to his parents and Baby Brother to Big Sisters, Taylor (Tay T) and Glentoria (Tory). Affectionately known as “Bubba”, so as not to confuse the Glenns, “G3” was a celebrated new member of their household and extended family.

Bubba was quite the renaissance man. He was introduced to the outdoors almost immediately as his family spent time often in Idlewild, MI. He enjoyed hunting with his Papa, fishing with his father and four wheeling with his sisters. He had a great love of model trains, an affinity he shared with his father. He was a Cub Scout and played flag football. He loved basketball and was a strong supporter of the East Hills Middle School basketball team as well as favorite NBA teams - Golden State Warriors, Los Angeles Lakers and Boston Celtics. G3 was quite the ladies’ man, which was apparent at a young age. After determining his mom was already taken, he set his sights on the older ladies – his favs being teachers, big sisters’ besties and TV models.

Even moments after his birth, his parents knew they had an exceptionally unique child. As an infant, Glenn was diagnosed with retinoblastoma, a rare type of eye cancer that begins in the retina. As a toddler he underwent eye surgery and received a prosthetic eye, which turned out be of no consequence to young Glenn.

Glenn was in remission from March 2010 to February 2018 when unfortunately, the disease returned. Glenn faced this challenge by saying “Don’t cry because #WE GOT THIS # TEAM GLENN # CABBELL STRONG”. This battle was hard-fought. “Team Cabbell” enlisted the care and expertise of two separate medical teams in Detroit, MI and Cincinnati, OH and on many occasions doctors from both teams were left baffled by this very rare and very aggressive disease.

Glenn Wayne Cabbell III departed this life surrounded in the love and care of his family Friday, March 29, 2019.

Bubba leaves to treasure his memory his beloved parents Glenn Jr and Tayadra, his dedicated sisters Taylor and Glentoria (and Belle), his grandparents - Susie (Nana) Hough, Clifford Mae (Gram) Cabbell and Taylor and Carnell (Papa & Granny) Hough, Great Great Effie J Kindred, aunts - Jacqueline (Irving Sr) Watson, Pamelor Elmore, Samantha Hough and Tayla Lowe, uncle Terry (Trina)Townsend and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Glenn III adored his teacher, Mrs Dana Byrd and will be missed tremendously by his bonus aunts – Sherry Feltson, Catrina Jones, Malinda McCree, Kimara Glover and Tanisha Taylor.

Glenn III was predeceased by his grandfather Glenn Cabbell Sr and aunt Glenda Cabbell.

“ Anthony Scott,

Proud to have young Glenn request to see me when he was making progress. Although he didn't have the hair growth yet, it was a heart felt sentiment to the barber/beauty shop. Last time I saw him, it was a honor to give him a line up, while his father & I was thinking yeah that fits him well. I will miss your physical presence but spiritually, you keep me ground. My sincere condolences & love from my center essence goes out to the family...

“ Glenn was a bright, energetic ray of sunshine who brought love, joy and excitement to everyone lucky enough to be in his presence. He was our dear family friend from the minute he moved to our neighborhood; we could count on Glenn—and his dear sisters Tori & Taylor—to come over everyday to play with Gypsy, our golden retriever. (See photo below). Our hearts are broken, and know that Tayadra, Glenn Sr, Taylor & Tori are suffering the deepest pain fathomable. We love you and know that Jesus is now running after Glenn as he pops wheelies up in heaven, just like his devoted sisters Tori & Taylor always did here on earth.
