Mr. Gordon Perry will truly be missed. He was a kind and thoughtful person who cared for everyone. He would remember the little things about you and give gifts that were personalized just for you. He attended my 60th Birthday party in August of this year, and both he and Harriet had so much fun laughing, dancing, and sincerely enjoyed each other so much. We are praying for cover and the favor of God's love on Mrs. Perry and the entire extended family and friends. Love You and Take Care.
