“ Prayers and love to the family. Certain people touch our lives in ways they would never know. That was Grace. I have only known her for a few years when we were both hospitalized. We became friends and had long talks like we had been knowing each other for years. She loved her family deeply. Her faith in God is what inspired me the most. That laugh, what can I say lol.. Knowing that you are with our Heavenly father with no worries, no discomfort and no sorrows gives me great joy. I will miss you my friend!!

“ Grace and I worked together at CWO, Grace would always have a word of encouragement and what I will miss the most is her laugh. Grace had a smile that would light up a room. Rest in heaven my friend.

“ My heart is heavy! Grace Brooks, my sister - the middle baby, received her heavenly wings and a seat in the heavenly choir. Rest in sweet peace, my dear Sister...I will miss our loooooonnnnggg conversations we shared...you were (are) truly an inspiration to me...your unwavering faith... your steadfastness in standing on God's Word was like no other...and and and...the love for your beloved children and family was untouchable. Thank you, Grace, for always encouraging me and supporting your nieces and nephews - traveling to weddings, graduations, funerals...if you could, you showed up all the way from Detroit, MI...(getting emotional over here). Remember you stepping off the Jet and walking down the runway with all that long hair - so long you almost tripped over it...I called you 'Shorty' because our Dad was short in stature...sweet sweet sweet...memories! Rest in peace, Baby Sister, rest in sweet peace in the arms of our loving God! <3 <3 <3 With loving memories, your sister, Amerah Henrene Bridges, as I lift the family up in prayers during this challenging time.
