“ 1. Cynthia, I was saddened to hear Gus had passed. Together we shared the company of a giant. Gus was an amazing person and special lifelong friend. I feel so fortunate to have been his next door neighbor as kids and share his wedding day and his 70th birthday. Throughout the years he never changed, I honor his service to humanity, he was a true patriot, and always a giver. I will always hold you and your family close in my heart.

With deepest sympathy,

“ Gus was one of the finest gentlemen that I ever knew - and a mighty man of God ; I met Gus about 20 years ago officiating football (middle school) at Clawson ; I was a newbie and made a few egregious mistakes, but after the game, Gus put his arm around me and told me that it was OK because we all make mistakes ; I knew right then I had a good friend and all of the referring that we did in subsequent years only reinforced that feeling ; Gus will be sorely missed, but he is with Jesus now ; John Satko

“ Gus officiated many of my basketball games at Oak Park High School. He was always fair. As the years passed my wife Rita and I through our good friend Steve Bernstein became part of the dinner group with Mike Shogun, Steve, Gus and Cynthia. I got to know Gus on a more personal level? Gus was a very intelligent person. I found him to be a very caring person. We had so much in common. He became a good friend and I had the utmost respect for him. Losing Gus has robbed me of a very special person who made the world a better place. Rest easy my friend until we meet again either on the court or at Gino's. You were a blessing to all those who lives were graced by you.

“ Gus, how long have we been officiating together, 40+ years? And every time that we did, I walked on the floor with confidence because I knew "my partner" was taking care of his business. Sometimes, months would pass, sometimes years would pass and then I'd see Gus yet again and we'd pick up where we left off. Not just about our game, but about life-his job, his family, my life, etc. it was always real. To a good official, to a good man, to a good family man. Our Earth is short one good one now.
