

Gwendolyn Joyce Fleming

December 1, 1953 - February 1, 2019

In Loving Memory

Of

Anthony & Gwendolyn Fleming

Anthony Fleming was born to Tommy & Dorothy Fleming on December 2, 1954. He was the third child of four siblings (Cheryl, Tommy, Jr. and Rhonda) and has only one nephew, Larnell Fleming. Anthony attended Detroit public schools and after began a successful career in healthcare serving as a boiler operator and later a well respected biomedical technician at Detroit Children's Hospital.

Gwendolyn J. Fleming was born to Jerimiah and Margaret Morgan on December 1, 1953. She was the fifth of six siblings (Wanda, Ester, Jerry, Jeanette and Paul). Gwen attended Detroit public schools and graduated from both Wayne and Highland Park Community Colleges. Gwen was a certified surgical technologist, and owned her own business (Surgical Staff Builders). She did the impossible. She was from the Brewster Douglas housing projects and always let it be known that you can do anything you set your mind to. Anthony and Gwen were united in marriage on June 23, 1984. Their love was strong and lasted 35 years through "thick and thin". They leave to celebrate their life and love their a loving family, daughters Monique Jelks, Alicia Greer and Ashley Gunn, two wonderful son-in-law's, Mark Gunn and Marcell Greer. The greatest of Anthony and Gwen's children are their five extremely loved grandchildren, Micah Turner, Timothy Jelks, Nina Poindexter, Maliha Gunn and Mahlan Gunn. Anthony and Gwen also leave behind a host of family and friends.

“ Dear Gwen, Its hard to imagine you are no longer with us. Watching your girls growing up with my girls made those early years bearable when we shared them together. We shared stories of our husbands friendship, the kids, their work and our Lord, the whole time, making each other laugh. I will always remember those early years. Thank you for sharing them with me. Thank you for the prayers and thank you for the friendship. RIH
