Condolences to Duane, Sam and Allison on the loss of their father, as well as the entire McCullough family, who I've known for well over 50 years. I have so many fond, sometimes very comical memories of "Coldwater", as well as shared moments and memories with the family. May the ancestors welcome him with open arms.

“ Harold I am going to miss you something terribly. It was never a moment that I did not see you, that my heart had a instant smile on it. I'm so glad that our last visit was a reckoning of how much we loved and admired each other. Its God's turn now, to keep you immorally safe and happy. Farewell my Brother, my Friend and my Love 🌸❤️🌸
