“ *To the family of Harry Jones
In case I don't make it in person I wanted to share my thoughts of such a great man. I met him early in my career at GM, and I'll always remember him as a genuinely kind person that always greeted you with a smile and firm handshake. The greatness in him, he instilled in his family as well as evident in two of his sons that I have worked with as well; Shalom and Amadi. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Harry was just a genuine good person. Loved his family. Always greeted me with a smile on his face. I considered him not just a co-worker, but also a friend

This unfortunately is one of those times when you have so many things to say, but you just have no words.....I have to share this thought though, as long as I remember my sister Bay there was Harry in her life and when you referenced them it was always Bay & Harry whether they showed up together or not. And when I saw my brother Harry on the day my sister made her transition, which happened to be on Harry's Birthday 3/29. I saw through his sadness that living without her wasn't something he wanted to do. I know that he knew and felt confident in how he raised his children even inspite of personal differences that their upbringing's would hold his family together and with that, gave him the peace to make his transition to reunite in spirit with Bay.....My Thoughts Only!! Your baby sis Linda Jones

To Angie, Lisa Rod, Marlon, Amadi and Shalom I Love You All More Than You Know ❤️🙏

“ To the family of Harry Jones, you have our love and prayers as you go thur this difficult time for the 2nd time in 30 days. Haven lost your mother 31 days before your Dad is more than devastating. I have lost my sister prior to losing my dear bonus brother, Harry. He was a gentle, hard working family man that took great pride in his loving wife and their six adult children. To the children, the greatest desire of a parent is that the family will always remain close and keep that sibling bond. Send love and prayers to you all. We will always be a part of your family support group. Love, Uncle Sy & Auntie Kitty

To family of Harry Jones, we've been neighbors for the past 12yrs or more to your parents within a stone throw away, my wife would check in if she didn't see them. Never really got to spend much time Socializing, other than Acknowledging each other with a wave and smile. We will sadly miss Mr Jones for the pride and joy he took in Manicuring is lawn and the Christmas lights that bought the Festive season into our neighborhood. Our Condolences and prayers go out to the family and friends, that the peace of God will Comfort and sustain you all, within this time off Grief. Lorna and Delroy Scott.

To all my beautiful Cousins, Though we know the day we lose a loved one leaves us feeling heartbroken, but losing both your parents so close together, leaves us to ponder how in the world God could possibly give us the ability to muster up enough strength to endure another moment after a broken heart from the loss of the first parent. I send you endless prayers that Lord continues to bless each and every one of you with His miraculous working power to help you all, each and every minute of each day! May He give you PEACE and STRENGTH, especially through your grief. Uncle Harry and Aunty Bay will be tremendously missed! I loved them both. My childhood memories of going to your candy store and them letting us pick whatever we wanted. And we didn't even have to pay for it!!! They were the best! May Uncle Harry Rest in Paradise... right next to my Beautiful Aunty Bay!

Love always, Lynn Lynn and the Chatman Family
