“ My Aunt Pearl has been a great inspiration in my life ever since I came into the world! She was my mom's closest cousin, she was my mom's (Bessie) her ride and die, her Bff, her phone a friend, her shoulder to cry, her greatest adviser. They have been through it all. They moved to Detroit with their husbands together, they bought the same cars 3 times, meek coats. They taught us how to hide the bags of clothes in the truck and them take them out when Dad wasn't home. they talked on the phone thru everything. I remember getting burned by the pressing comb because mom would be on the phone with Aunt Pearl doing my hair, mom would ever whoop me and still be on the phone with Aunt Peral! Telling her to hold on a second! Also being in the back seat, my sister Karon and I while they took us to so many stores, Montgomery Ward, Besiege, Hudson's, Federal, and they would always stop at Carters hamburger. They would have Karon and I try on the worst looking clothes and say that look so cute on you! She told me always treat my brother right because he will be there if I ever need him when no one else will! And she was so right about that, and I lot of things! Her and mom would talk about New Bethel and what Rev Frankin said, and how good Aretha sang, and the Usher board that she was a member. When I was able to visit her in the nursing home, she was still saying what Rev Frankin said (What pray and the gospel can't do, it can't be done!) She would just keep repeating it, it was deep down in her spirit! Her and I would songs together. Lastly, I picked my a habit from her. She would always rub her hands together, I find myself doing that with my feet before I fall asleep. I even rub my husband feet with my feet because of Aunt Pearl. I had to let her go a year ago because of Covid-19 visiting restrictions but when I did she always knew who I was. She didn't even remember my mom sometimes, but she knew me just as I will always remember ,love and miss her! I know those 11 brothers and sister, and Jill are having a great reunion with Jesus, the one who has prepared a place for those who believe in him. Stay with the Lord family!
