“ *Family:
There is much love and many memories! When you lose someone special you must now learn to live with all of the love and memories left behind. As long as there are so many good memories the loss will always be filled with love. They say Heaven is a beautiful place the the ultimate goal of all of Gods children. Upon Helen's arrival she found the embrace of God's embrace waiting at the entrance to greet her. Rest well Helen you are now an Angel!*

“ To my Sister Valerie, James and Sonja,
Mama Helen has just been given the keys to her Mansion in Heaven, and if the Streets are Paved with Gold...just imagine what awaits her inside.
Truly a lovely, soft spoken, kind-hearted lady who was able to live a Long, Luxurious Love filled Life that others could only wish for.
Mama Helen will definitely be missed. ❤️❤️❤️

“ To know Helen is to love Helen. Every morning before she went down stairs, she dressed for the occasion as if she had some where to go and she was already to go. A sharp, proud beautiful Black Woman. You were welcomed into her life and her home. Loved to feed you so you always to visit their home. First time I talked with Helen was on phone we became instant friends. We discussed politics, world events, our favorite TV shows (especially OWN), our children, our family, friends, cooking, eating out and how to dress fashionably. She was always current and In The Know. Loved and cherished her immediately family VAL, SONJA, and JAMES as well as her extended family. Never met a stranger and was loved immediately.

We know God is waiting for Helen. She was one of God's Exceptional Creations and God shared Helen with All of Us. She left us quickly and that is how she wanted her exit to be. Truly exceptional woman in our eyes and we will never forget her.

All my Love

“ The family has my deepest heartfelt condolences in the passing of your loving mother. She was a woman of class and a woman of high esteem. When she entered a room, she commanded your attention by the way she dressed and demonstrated a high positive energy. She was definitely a trend setter who strutted to her own beat. Helen never met a stranger, for she treated everyone as though they were part of her family. Helen always put family first, no matter what. She will always be in my heart and I thank God that I was blessed in knowing her on such a personal level. James, Valerie and Sonja all of you honored and loved your mom. May she rest in peace.
