“ The one thing that I remember most about my friend Herlanda is how much she loved she loved her children and grandchildren. She always praised them whenever we talked, and she really enjoyed spending time with them. I could feel the love generating from her. I will forever miss her. To the family, I pray that you all always stay close. We know that's what she would want. Always honor and cherish her memory and all the special moments you shared. God bless you all. Love you guys. ❤️❤️

To my family may God give you the comfort you need during this time. I know it's even harder when you don't have all of your family there with you but know we are praying for you and we love you so much. I will truly miss your mom's smile and her sweet spirit. She is preparing a space for us with the rest of our love ones in Heaven now. No more sickness, no more hurt, no more disappointment. All happiness. I love you all. Psontia

“ With my deepest sympathy...

The Bible tells us...“Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal”.

Wow! What can I say to encourage you all through a challenging time such as this?

From the moment I first met you (mom), I was welcomed with open arms. The warmth of your smile was radiant! You and Al (Scooby) opened up your home to me. There’s been nothing but love shown ever since.

I knew you to be a very strong, loving, kind, compassionate and a God-fearing woman. Always looking for ways to bring the family together. You were all together lovely! You had a great love for all people in general. You were a secret keeper, provider (always cooking/baking something), a nurturer and truly a rare gem. You’ve blessed my life in so many ways and for that I’m grateful!

Even when your health started to decline...you kept on fighting & pressing your way. You looked to the Lord from whence come your help and he heard your every cry. We loved you...BUT GOD loved you best! You’ve been set free, given your wings, traded in your leaky earthly house for one not built with hands. The Lord saw fit to call you on home to rest from your labor down here. It’s a prepared place for a prepared people and now you’re resting eternally in his loving arms.

To Al, Chiquita, Melvin III, Myles and Erica.. continue to honor her legacy/memory by picking up the baton and run on. Love, comfort and support one another now and forever.

To the grandkids...remember all the precious moments, conversations and the laughter and life lesson shared as she was teaching you how to love. Be slow to anger yet quick to forgive.

Blessings, love and peace be upon you all,

Latrece Brown-Davis

“ Big Sis, it was you that introduced me to our father Irving Fowler. It was you that introduced me the music of the Four Tops. It was you Big Sis, that put a roof over my head three times in my adult life. Big Sis, I've seen you be a daughter, sister, wife, mom, a musician, a caregiver, run & own a night club and even a motorcycler. You wore many, many hats and helmets with passion, and by the way put on some GREAT Basement parties. I never saw you back up from any challenge. In this world you were the PROTECTOR of so many and many have survived in this world because of you. Now like our mom you get to rest and be away from all that is bad in this world. As a Angel, I know you will still be protecting and guiding us. Love you dear big Sis, LOVE YOU, your brother Leo

Sending my Condolences and Prayers to Erica and family

Karen Gibson - April 08, 2020 at 12:01 PM

Gone from your sight, but never from your hearts. The object is not to forget, but to remember to go on. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I wish you all healing and peace. I hope you feel surrounded by much love. I'm sorry for your loss.

And then I heard the Angel say, "She's with you every day."
