“ I met Hilda in August when my mom moved into Sunrise. I loved talking to her in the Bistro at 3:00 social hour. She always told me about her children and their accomplishments. She was a proud mother.
I also loved singing worship songs with her on Saturday's at 2:00. Sadly I was out of town last week and I had not seen her in a week. I would say hi to her whenever I passed her room and she was in watching tv. She was such a sweet lady.
