“ Uncle Oliver, you and Aunt Hortense have had one of the longest marriages in our family. I have always enjoyed our conversations and listening to you share the experiences that you all have had throughout the years-- she was truly a real friend and a soul mate to and for you, and you for her. What a blessing to know that you both found each other the 1st time around. I'm praying that God would saturate you with insurmountable peace, keep you mindful of all of the great times that the two of you had together and continued looooong life!! We, the Howard family love you, and I'm praying for you all (HUGZ!!)

“ *Hortense (Tensie) was the best sister, you could ever asked for.
I can't imagine how much brighter the glow of heaven must be since this woman of grace stepped through the gates. I was always fascinated by her ability to command the attention of the room by her perfectly groomed hairstyles and sharp appearance. When she spoke she was kind and encouraging, direct and to the point. She made such a difference in my life and helped me achieve so many things. I will always love her for reminding me that nothing is impossible, even when I was in doubt. God has take a piece of my heart.
RIP, your loving sister Geri*
