“ I am so sorry to hear about Martin's passing. We worked together for many years at VW. Right in the next cubicle. He was the absolute best. We worked hard and we laughed a lot. After I left to work for MB, we still kept in touch. I had the pleasure of meeting him for lunch when i was back in town. He had told me he lost his lovely wife and told me how proud he was of his children. He even gave me travel dental floss. He was so proud of his daughter becoming a dentist. He was the ultimate husband, father, and co-worker and everything else. A big teddy bear. He was such a mentor to me. Thank you so much. You are so appreciated and missed. God bless your family.

“ Howard was the best. A true car guy. Howard went through many changes in his working life. From his Chrysler days, Sterling Heights days to days at corporate office. He never lost his positive attitude. He was a role model for all of us to follow. Not a more caring person than Howard. The earth was a better place with people like Howard. Rest In Peace.

“ Howard was definitely one of the nicest people in the office and brought value to his team. Very loyal. He liked a little joke too!

“ TO THE MARTIN DAUGHTERS... As a little girl your father is larger than life. He is like a superhero, big and strong and the provider to all. Growing up on Ardmore I have vivid memories of the fathers of our youth and the importance of their presence in our lives. Now as an adult I understand the importance of these larger than life superheroes and the role they played in showing us what a strong black man looked like.

Mr. Martin, much like my father, was one of a dying breed of men that understood what it meant to take care of a family. I know that you guys will miss him but we were blessed to have these types of men in our lives. I never took this for granted because there are many I know who didn't a strong father presence as we did growing up.

Stay strong and celebrate his life by instilling the same values that he in instilled in you to the next generation. We have so many sweet memories and we have our parents to thank for that. I know this is a tough time but I promise God will get you through it. I love you guys. Your forever nextdoor neighbor Mitzi...

“ Howard had one of the first welcoming smile's when I joined the VW team. He was truly a genuine man. The kind of person that always made you feel good no matter what the circumstance. He'd wrap me in one of his big bear hugs and before you knew it we'd both be laughing. My heartfelt condolences to the Martin family.

“ I was incredibly blessed to consider Howard as a very dear friend. He was one of the first persons I met at VW and he become a lasting friend for 27 years. I was lucky enough to work in the same department for 10 years and sit next to him for many of those. One of my fondest memories of Howard was his infectious and contagious laugh. He was one of the most honest, decent, humble, caring people one could ever know. He loved his entire family so very much. He was so proud of Pam, Jennifer, Kathy, Debra & Jessica and he always bragged equally as much about his grandkids. My sincerest sympathies to all of you.

“ Over the years, Howard and I shared many things; conversations about our daughters and his grandkids, current events, how to solve the world's problems, dinners, lunches, a good single-malt, and most importantly, a wonderful, enduring friendship. I will miss you terribly dear friend...until we meet again. My sincere condolences to the Martin family.

“ Howard was truly one of the BEST guys that I worked with during my 37 years with VW. He was more than a co-worker. He was a friend who I enjoyed being with, having lunch with and talking about one of our favorite subjects—music!! He and I grew up in the same musical era and consequently it wasn't just about rock n' roll. We loved R&B, Jazz and pop. We had fun turning one another on to our favorite artists and tunes. Howard's positive attitude was contagious and I can't believe that any fellow worker would have anything but praise and admiration for HM. He's in a place we all hope to be one day. God bless you, brother Howard and may you always be in His peace and everlasting love. Condolences to all his family and dear friends. Kind personal regards, Jules Bauduc
