“ I remember I.S. when he was a pre-teen attending Christ Temple Church. He had an interest in music and often sat near the pianist or organist to learn keys and chords. He became an outstanding musician and served churches and funeral homes for many years. He was from a wonderful family. I pray that his nieces and nephews will know that they are from a legacy of fine people, and that his memory will keep your hearts warm in the days ahead.
