“ We offer our heartfelt condolences to you and your family as you grieve the passing of your dear mother. While her earthly journey has come to an end, her spirit lives on—in the love she gave, the lessons she taught, and the faith she carried.

May God’s peace surround you, and may His presence bring comfort to your heart. We pray that the cherished memories you hold and the promise of eternal life bring you strength. Your mother’s light continues to shine, and her soul rests safely in God’s embrace. The McNeely Family

“ I feel incredibly grateful to have known Grandma Reno. From the time we were kids, she always welcomed my sister and me into her home. Over time we started calling her Grandma too, and that always felt so natural because that’s exactly how she treated us.

I will always admire her strength and the beautiful family she raised. The love, closeness, and the many strong women in the Reno family are such a powerful reflection of who she was and the legacy she created. She touched so many lives simply by being the caring, generous woman she was.

Please know that I’m holding all of you in my heart and sending love during this time. I will always cherish the memories of being welcomed into her home and her family.

“ I met wonderful representatives of Mrs. Issie Bell Reno’s family, particularly in her daughter Regina, in whose 48204 neighborhood I also grew up. I have known Regina at Mackenzie High School, Eastern Michigan University, and through 54 years in our college EMU Black Alumni services. Regina is a wonderful lady, a stellar representative of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. Delta Nu Chapter Alumni Sweetheart Court. Jesus’s Words, “a friend closer than a brother”, and the Kappa members will also testify to Regina’s qualities of excellence in leadership, steadfastness, and with her supportive excellence all rendered in a very Godly spirit. Jesus also said “If you have seen me you have seen God the Father.” Likewise we know Mrs. Reno from the fruit that she bore. John 14:4 says Jesus answered: “Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? With love, peace and gratitude, Faithfully, Mr. And Mrs. Michael “Tiger” Price

“ Jeanette Thomas/Love Always

I read this poem at my Grandfather's funeral and I would like to present it again to the Family:

Kahlil Gibran on Death

You would know the secret of death.

But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life?

The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day cannot unveil the mystery of light.

If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life.

For life and death are one, even as the river and the sea are one.

In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond;

And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring.

Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate to eternity.

Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the king whose hand is to be laid upon him in honour.

Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling, that he shall wear the mark of the king?

Yet is he not more mindful of his trembling?

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?

And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.

And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance.

“ Mother Issie Bell (The Queen)

What a journey in life this has been! The journey has been long but it's been worth it!

I was honored to be a part of the journey through Regina!

The Queen taught us well...We learned patience, determination, faith, joy, peace, love with out limits, how to win in adversity, how to pray without ceasing, how to overcome and be more than conquerors and the list goes on.

Mother, you fought a good fight while teaching others and you finished the course...ENJOY the treasures that you earned.

Love...prayers....and hugs to the Family
