“ I just found out I lost my cousin Jermaine, and my heart is heavy. He was such a loving and joyful part of my childhood. I used to spend summers in Michigan, and one of the best parts was seeing him and the rest of the family. Those moments meant more to me than I ever realized back then.

Even in my adult years, he would often reach out in my Facebook messages just to check on me, the I family. That was Jermaine...always loving, always thoughtful, always showing up with care.

I will forever remember him. I will forever love him. Thank you for the laughter, the memories, the family bond, and the love you gave so freely. Rest easy, cousin. You will be missed beyond words, but carried forever in our hearts.

“ Jermaine was my 1st love. We shared many memories, a son Donte, a grandson Chase and over 30 years of a connection that only he and I knew.

“ I am and always be Jermaine's uncle and will always love him and I truly believe he loved me. Jermaine was a kind hearted fellow and would give you the shirt off his back, he loved his family and everyone in it, he kept up with everyone and remembered everyone he met. he was a good fellow and I will miss his text and conversations.

“ Jermaine was more than just my big brother — he was my safe space.
As far back as I can remember, he was there. We cried together, we stood together, and he always protected me. He defended me when I couldn't defend myself and stood beside me when the world felt heavy.
No matter what was going on, Jermaine showed up. Even in moments when it felt like no one else was there, he was. His presence alone made things feel safer, made life feel a little less hard.
Jermaine was a great big brother. His love was real, his loyalty was steady, and his protection never wavered. I will miss him deeply.
He was truly loved.
And he will truly be missed.
