“ My sincere condolences to the Rucker Family. As I think about how good Uncle Greg was to me when I use to go over his house and stay with Bebee. I think about the love and laughter. All I have is memories. Even when he brought his daughter to Alabama to live, he brought her to my house. And we talked and laughed like usual. You will be missed!

“ James Gregory Rucker was a smart, kind, and hard working friend, brother and father. He supported me in all of my endeavors. He loved softball, basketball, table tennis and remodeling homes. He taught me and poured great blessings into my life. He is gone but not forgotten. I look forward to seeing him in paradise.
