“ Dear Grandpa,
Thank you for the hugs and love over the past few years. We'll miss seeing you stop by the house just to see how we were doing. Although we are saddened by your loss, we know you are in a better place. ❤️
Love Edward, Tori, Elijah, MaNas and Niya.

“ Grandpa, how can I possibly capture in words the essence of who you are, the profound impact you've had on my life, and all that you've done for me and this family? Your presence filled the room, commanding attention; you were always the best-dressed person there. But beyond that, you were the personification of what it means to be a man, husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. Whenever we needed you, you were there, steadfast and unwavering. You taught me the value of hard work through your tireless dedication to this family. Your laughter was contagious; its deep timber echoed through our gatherings like a joyful melody that brought everyone together. I can picture those family picnics on the porch, where you would look on at your family with love. As I reflect on all you've done for us, it's clear that your legacy extends far beyond mere memories. You've laid down roots in our hearts that will forever flourish. Your kindness shaped our family values; your strength inspired us to strive for greatness while remaining humble. Grandpa, you are not just my grandfather—you are my heart. Your guidance has been a beacon in my darkest days and an anchor in turbulent times. Even as time moves forward, know that I carry you with me in everything I do—a constant reminder of what it means to live fully and love deeply. Thank you for being exactly who you are: an extraordinary man whose influence and love will resonate through generations to come.

“ The first time I met Grandpa was a little over 2 years ago, and I still remember his warm smile and his eagerness to share the story about how he met Grandma and their road trips back home to Virginia with their kids. He was a beautiful soul, full of love and light, and he will be deeply missed.
