“ I recently met Cousin Vickie a few years ago which is disappointing for me. But I must say she was one of those people who you felt that you knew forever! I will never forget our sweet spirit, joy, and laughter that I felt each time I spoke to her on the phone or via a text. She was so endearing and complementary to people she didn't know that well, but all she needed to know is that I was the daughter of one of her closest older cousin, Clarence West. I will miss the fact that I can't get to know her more than what I did.

*Condolences to each and everyone of her family members and friends! May God comfort each one of us through this time! -

“ Every Tuesday when Ms. Janet came to work; she would either come by my desk or I would go into the breakroom, and we would hug and do a little dance. She was truly an Angel that was placed in my life. Ms. Janet will truly be missed! Darlene
