“ My condolences go out to the Moore-Black family. Janice and I attended Western Michigan University and became friends there. We stayed in touch over the years. Janice was a sweet person and always had pleasant welcoming demeanor. It's sobering to lose a person that emanated such positivity and light wherever she went. The gift that was ours in Janice will now be with lord. Selah.

“ On behalf of The Other Hand, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your family during this time of loss, having worked with Janice at God's Oasis during her time at Spectrum. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you as you navigate this difficult season.

We had the pleasure of working with Janice at God's Oasis during her time at Spectrum. Her work was a light in the world and helped with starting our journey to service the foster children in the Metro Detroit area.

Janice, you will be missed immensely!

“ I will always remember my aunt as a peaceful, loving, strong, and nurturing woman. She was a beautiful mother, daughter, and sister. She was an integral part to the development of many people that I love, and I'm sure to her community and friends. I will continue to live in her ways and values, and uphold our name to the best of my ability. I will remember all of the little moments that we shared, and live with the fighting spirit my aunt possessed. Although her being may be away, her spirit still remains in the family and loved ones that are still here. Thank you for everything my dear aunt Janice.

“ Janice had such a gift for bringing beauty to others. I'll never forget how she made my bridal bouquet exactly as I dreamed — simply from a picture I tore out of a magazine. It was stunning, and it meant the world to me. Thank you, Janice, for being such a wonderful sister-in-law.

“ Rev. Janice, your love for God and humanity is a blessing. You blessed so many of us at St Luke AME HP. , opening your heart and skill in the Women's Institutes. The Institute encouraged so many attendees to accept their calling in God's purpose for them. Your faith and commitment is treasured and we shall miss the sweet angel in you. Your memory lives on.

“ Janice I will miss you forever and never forget the writing class you gave me as my very first State of Michigan supervisor. You was always encouraging me to step out and you cared about my professional growth and because of you I have been stepping out, moving through my career and setting more goals. Thank you so much and thank God I had the chance to experience your caring heart. Im even more grateful I told you how much I appreciated the writing assistance that you provided. Thank you for the red ink Janice. Love you until we meet again.

“ Saddened to hear you have transitioned. You walked with honor, and kept your head high no matter the fight. Our last laugh was me telling you- you know stay “Dressed yo the nines” we laughed. Glad to have shared a great moment with you. Thank you for the influence you added to child welfare. I hope you are resting peacefully and know you made a difference in this world. To the Family, my deepest sympathies. God bless you all
