“ I am so thankful and proud of you. Resilient, you walked in your purpose guided by faith and intuition. You conquered your fears, stood firm in your truth, and stood up for the little one hurt and unseen. Your ascension has taken so many beautiful colors from our lives to stain the heavens, your new canvas. Powerful in flesh, I can only imagine the power your spirit wields. This world was better with you in it as were all the lives you touched. We will never forget your spirit, laughter, and kindness. Your light and essence will never be replicated or replaced. You were uniquely you, an original blueprint of grace, love, and beauty doused in intelligence and sunshine. My eternal teacher - I continue to learn from you even now. You were right about everything, prophetic in so many ways. You have made a difference in so many people's lives, Jas. I will never forget you, the way you protected and loved so many, your love of my children and our tribe. Oh Jas. How do we say goodbye to a piece of our soul, a source of our light? Your vessel may be gone but your spirit remains, strongly. Sweet dreams, my beautiful friend - until we meet again.

“ Jas will forever be missed! I am grateful for all of the knowledge and mentoring that she gave to me! I enjoyed our foodie lunch moments when we used to have to go into the office. I am also honored that she supported my Travel Agent business and booked her last birthday trip to Jamaica this past April. Glad to have had the chance to know you! Rest well Boo! ”

“ My beloved Sweetie, my work daughter, I am so grateful our paths crossed. I enjoyed our daily Riverwalk walks. I am delighted that you affectionately called me “Ma”. It was a great pleasure to meet your mother Ms. Charlie and I thank God that she shared you with me.

One thing for sure you know your Ma loved and adored you. You hold a special bond and you will forever have a special space in my heart. Zina/Ma

“ Having worked with Jasmin these past four years, I was able to see the consummate professional that she was and how she supported her direct team members and colleagues day in and day out. She was very passionate about her work and the senior population which the MA line of business services. She would go out of her way to help others, educating them as needed, and giving kudos to other for supporting our members and representing the organization. She was a trusted advisor! Personally, she shared her passion for art, reading and poetry demonstrating her creative soul.

“ I am in utter shock. Not my Jasmin! Jasmin helped me get through an extremely difficult time while I was in a previous department. She made me feel seen and heard. She was community when I felt I had none or believed it existed in the corporate world. She always encouraged me to engage in networking events and offered the best advice! I knew when she was involved that business was going to be handled. I am completely devastated. She was such a light to me. She made a huge difference in my life, one that she probably didn't even know. A true corporate "baddie". Such an inspiration. I'm sending so much love and positive energy to her loved ones. I love her forever. Thank you, thank you Jasmin!

“ I didn't know Jasmine for a long time, but I do remember when we did meet, it felt like we had known each other for a lifetime. The way we chopped it up during our very first conversation with each other, would have also made you think we had known each other for a lifetime.

For my lifetime, Jasmine will be missed.

“ I want to share a memory of my dear friend and coworker, Jaz. A recent moment stands out to me was on September 9th - we were on a call, and my granddaughter said, "Hello, I'm Tala." Jaz replied, "Hi, I'm Jasmine." My two-year-old granddaughter was so amazed and happy to be talking to Jasmine the princess from Aladdin. That's who Jaz was - she had a way of making people, young and old, feel special. Jaz was always a good friend. She called me her "sis," and I know she had so many people she considered family. We often talked about our families, and when it was time to work, she was someone I could always rely on - and she could rely on me. Jaz will always be a part of my life and never forgotten. She had the most beautiful smile that could brighten anyone's day. She was passionate and dedicated to her work, and I know she is in good hands and a better place now. She will always be alive in my heart and in the memories, we shared - like the last time we went to a Tigers game. We sat and watched the game, but mostly, we just talked. I always cherished her company and will miss her deeply.

“ I worked with Jasmin in the past and went to another area of the company. Whenever we saw each other after this she always had a big smile on her face, the hugs she gave were wonderful, she was so happy to see me and made me feel wonderful. I have twins and she always asked how they are doing and i would ask about her family also. My God bless you in heaven Jasmin and may God bless her family.
