“ Judge Nance and Family,

In these unthinkable moments with the departure of Jason from this earth, please keep your strength and treasure your precious moments with Jason always. He served our country and made you so proud! Do know that Judicial Council is weeping with you and celebrating too the well lived life of Jason and his meaningful accomplishments. While we cannot number our days, find comfort that Jason lived a purposeful life and made the road for many better. May God keep you covered and strong! Peace unto you with Grace and Mercy surrounding you and your family.
