

Jean Borders

December 27, 1927 - March 9, 2026

Jean Kelly was born on December 27, 1927 in Newport, Arkansas to Arma Lena Kirk (Crite)and Bud Kelly. Jean was the eldest of 5 siblings. She peacefully transitioned on March 9,2026 in Plymouth, Michigan.

Jean was baptized at an early age at Morning Star Baptist Church in Newport, Arkansas. And later joining Messiah Missionary Baptist Church with her family in Pontiac, Michigan.

Jean graduated from W.F. Branch High School, being the last remaining member of her high school class. There she established many lifelong friendships.

She was joined in holy matrimony with L.C. Jerome Borders(deceased 1973). Together they relocated to Pontiac, Michigan to seek greater opportunities and to raise their family. To this union six children were born.

Jean was preceded in death by three of her siblings; Jack Sprawling, Shirley Long and Clemmie Crite. Also preceding her .. beloved grandson Devon Pruitt and son-in-law, D' Arthor Pearce.

She leaves to cherish her memories her six children, Sonja(Monnie), Dwaine and Anu (daughter-in-law), Myron, Iris, Cheryl and Joanie. Her brother Will Crite Jr., and her grandchildren; Dr. Morgan B. Borders, Sangeeta and Sunita . Her sisters-in-law, Margaret Sprawling and Lonnie Mae Crite. And a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
